

Nondiscrimination and Equal Opportunity Requirements

Countryside Estates Apartments is an Equal Housing Opportunity Community. As such, this Community adheres to all federal Fair Housing and Civil Rights laws, and all state and local regulations concerning nondiscrimination in housing.

Countryside Estates Apartments will seek to identify and eliminate situations or procedures that create a barrier to equal housing opportunity for all. In accordance with Section 504 and the Fair Housing Amendments Act, Countryside Estates will attempt to make such changes as will reasonably accommodate people with disabilities within the regulations governing the housing program. This Community does not discriminate based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, disability, marital status, or sexual orientation. This Community does not discriminate against any particular socio-economic classes (e.g., public assistance recipients, single parent, households) or against individuals who are not members of any sponsoring organization of this Community.

Countryside Estates Subsidized Housing

Countryside Estates Apartments are managed by Volunteers of America of Wisconsin, a local faith based, non-profit organization that provides local human service programs and opportunities for individual and community involvement. From rural America to inner-city neighborhoods, Volunteers of America engages its professional staff and its volunteers in dealing with today's most pressing needs.

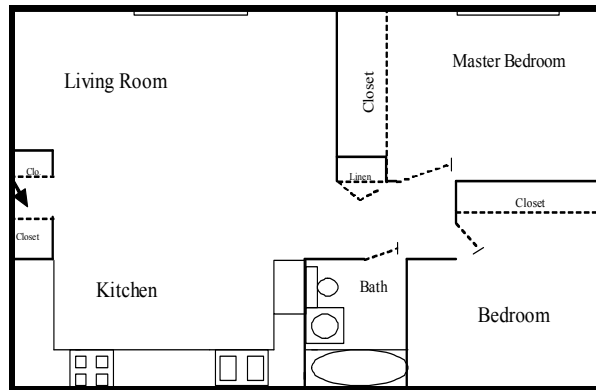

Volunteers of America was established in 1896 by Christian social reformers, Ballington and Maud Booth. The name Volunteers of America was selected when the organization was founded. It signifies that the organization is comprised of people voluntarily choosing to help others. Volunteers of America is an established organization with religious and charitable purposes dedicated to reaching & uplifting all people.
