

Park Elder Center Adult Day

Park Elder Center Adult Day program welcomes and celebrates people from many cultures, helping them observe and preserve their unique cultural heritages among friends.

We are a licensed adult day program, providing support for seniors during the day. Our center will keep your loved one busy and engaged, allowing caregivers to keep working or take a periodic break for self-care.

We offer a morning snacks, a midday meal and afternoon snacks, which your loved one can enjoy while socializing with other seniors.

Our program provides activities designed to engage all, with music, games, and outings to locations such as parks, shops, museums, libraries and more.

Daily Activities include:

- Current events discussions (Coffee Talk)
- Trivia and Card games
- Painting and other arts programs
- Games of pool in the Center’s billiards room.
- Dancing and exercise
- Holiday and cultural celebration
- Birthday celebrations
- Health and legal talks from community experts
- Computer classes
- Health monitoring
